

BEAUTY FROM THE INSIDE OUT

Lesson 4: Beauty is how you give to others

“Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.” – Corinthians 9:6-7

You are almost there! While watching Video 4, complete the following questions to take a deeper look at how your generosity makes you beautiful.

1. What does generosity look like to you? Is it a dollar amount or a gift? Is it being given a day of no work or time to sleep in? How about help with a project or volunteering for a cause?

2. Think about a time when someone showed unexpected generosity to you. What did they do and how did you benefit? What does this example of generosity tell you about your view of generosity?

3. Think of a time in your life that you were generous to others. What did you do? Did you expect anything in return for your generosity? Why or why not?

4. Think of the people in your circle of influence that you can show generosity to: friends, family, coworkers. Perhaps it is not in the form of a dollar amount, but in the form of time or a simple favor like walking their dog or babysitting their young child so they can go on a date night with their spouse. Who would you like to show generosity to?

5. Accountability Challenge: After completing Question 4, write about the generous act you did below. Who did you show generosity to? What did you do? How did they react? Were you surprised by their reaction?

- a. Extra Credit: Post your accountability challenge to our private Facebook group and comment on one other post. Remember, you water others with your thoughts, words, and deeds!
